

I would like to see the code requirement to stay in place for general and extra class licensees. This past week with the increased solar activity it was clearly evident that CW (morse code) was able to get "through" to deliver the message and other modes were not ie-Single Side Band